A "LOVE" AFFAIR.—Some time ago a man about forty-five years of age, Samuel Love by came, came to this city from Washington and made the acquaintance of one Susie Ridgeway, who lives on north Fairfax street, since which time he has visited the city quite frequently. his bosom to suspect that "things were not what they seemed to be," so she followed him a week ago to this city, with a view of finding m what was going on. She saw him coter the weman's hous , and there bestow upon another waman the affection he had at the altar, swoin tolavish upon her and her alone; in her wrath, Mrs. Love determined to kil the woman who ivalled her in the love of Mr. Love, but ciremistate s proving unfavorable for the carryer one of her intentions, she returned after having made a note of Love's stopping plee; with feelings all wringst up, to ever the base treatment of her talse busyand. Mr. Love soon followed, and was peaved with a happy smile by his wife, just as toolking had happened. He explained to his love "how tedious and tasteless" were the hours he was compelled to spend in that "dulf old town of Alexandria," For over a week thors went on lovingly with the Lives, when again Mr. Live announced to Mis Live that he was called to Alexandria. He came to this ery this moreior, and went straight to the house of he fair inamerata. Mrs. Love, with outernessia ber heart and a pis ol in her pecket, arrived soon after. She entered the house, and there entirented, to his great astonish ment, her false hu-band, and at the sametime welled the pistol at the head of the Ridgeway waman, declaring, with flaming eyes and Loroic antitude, that she would blow her brains our; but she didn't blow. Officer Arnell here ar my don the scene, and marched both of the Loves off to the station house, where they were ocked up until this afternoon.

COMMITTED -It will be remembered that when the su henticated record of the finding findielments against Robert Ballenger and George Nowland, for robbery, in throwing overhased an edition of a weekly paper, and asthe Grand Jury of the District of Calumnia, and beach warrants from the Suprema Court I that District, were received to this city, one of the steased parties, Robert Ballenger, was arrested by Marshal O'Neal and taken before U. S. Commissioner Fowler, who bailed him in the sum of $1 000 for his appearance before him, the Commissioner, from day to day, until so order was issued by Judge Hughes transerring him to the Washington authorities, or until he was otherwise discharged by due course of law. The Commissioner, after a closer ex examination of the law on the subject, found that his section admitting Ballenger to bail, to await the order of Judge Hughes transferring him to the District authorities was not in so cordines with the law in the case; that the law required, that when an offense was committed in one district and the accused parties arrested is another, they should only be admitted to ball to appear forthwith before the court where the indictments were found, and there remain until the call of the case, unless granted ner mission to leave by the Attorney of the Dis-trict where the offense was committed; that if such security for their appearance was not given, then the only thing that remained for the Commissioner to do was to commit the accosed to juil to await the order of the judge of the district where they were arrested transferring them to the dis rict where the indictments were found. When Robert Ballenger appeared becommissioner Fowler, yesterday evening. to conformity with his bail bond, the Commis sioner read the above laws to him, and he decloing to give bail for his appearance in Wash logion, was committed to juil to aweit the action of Judge Hoghes.

THE MIRACLE CURES .- A gentleman of this city, at the request of a suffering friend, wrote to a friend in Bristol asking what truth there was in the reports published last week of these Bristol. This reply was received to day: "Bristol, Tenn., April 20, 1880."

"Dear Sir-Your card of the 18th jest, to my father, came duly to hand. In his absence, at Presbytery, I take the liberty of answering, since you desire a speedy reply. I have what my lather has not-personal knowledge of the man you speak of.

"Mr. Miller has indeed wrought some wonderfulworks but not as I think by faith. He is posassed of animal magnetism, and by simply subbing with his hands the party afil cled he telieves as I think only temporarily, the sufferer. I do not know of any permanent cures. I have been collected with sciation for some months. Mitter "rubbed" me and while under the influence of his hands I was free from pain, but the relief was only for the moment. There is no 'Miss Irone Newton' in this place to my knowledge; I do no: know 'Mr. Weriz.' | These were reported as among the healed. "Miller is now in Salem, Va., Roanoke county, where he will remain during the summer.

The markets during the week have been generally quiet, though towards the close there is some improvement in grain, with a renewed activity, which, however, is looked upon as rather a speculative movement. The fishing season, so far, has proved rather successful, and prices have been fair. Money is rather tight here abouts, though the demand, just now, is not pressing. In Baltimora there is recorded to the market opened strong, but closed dull and weaker; roughs, Oregons and natives 10:10wer; shipping 4 $5:20; butchers' steady; 2a$3 90; chiefly at 240a$3 50; stockers and leeders 2 90s $3:90. In Baltimore there is a good demand, and the capital off-ring finds employment more readily than during the earlier months of the year. Loans on good collateral are quoted at 5 a6 per cent, with the bulk of the business at the cutside figure. There is comparatively little paper making, and the range for discount is about the same as for loans. Most of the busi ness in discounts is now done at bank at the legal rate. In New York money is in abundant supply at 6 per cent, and occasionally at lower rates. It is a poculiar feature of the loan market that large accounts of time loans are bid for at from 5 to 54 per cent. Government bonds are firm, but generally quiet, the closing quotations at New York yesterday showing 1 decline in 41s and a advance in 4 per cents. The latter sold at 167s for regular coupon bonds and closed at 1078 a1071 for registered and small coupon bonds. State securities generally quiet, but we note sales of $27,000 Virginia consols at 533at31 closing 53? bid, 54 sskel. Coupons strong, the 10 4 s selling at 893, and the consol coupons at 87. Railroad stocks are quiet and firm. Baltimore and Ohio common is held at 158, with 156 bid. Nothing doing in Iccal shares, and the Mr. Cex, N. Y., chairman of the Committee only quotations given are for O. A. & M. 7s at 874,884. The decision of Judge Wellford of the Circuit Court of Richmond in the W. &. O. R. R. case will be appealed from.
